

Review Quiz Question Attempt Feedback

A new window should open and you can see the questions and answers. If there is additional question-specific feedback, there is a "View Feedback" link below the question. When you click it, your feedback will be available.	 The screenshot shows a window titled 'Question 1'. The question text is 'How well did you study the mat...'. There are four radio button options: '1) I wasn't sure study...', '2) I spent an hour stu...', '3) I spent at least 2 h...', and '4) I spent at least 3 h...'. The fourth option is selected and has a green checkmark. Below the options is a link '> View Feedback'.
